9.13 "Any team playing an unregistered player will receive a £5 late registration administration fine, but there will be no further penalty."

CAPTAINS DUTIES

10.1 "The visiting captain or appointed representative will draw for rinks, and toss a coin to decide possession of the jack on the opening end."

10.2 "The home team captain or appointed representative will be responsible for providing a result card and at the end of the match both captains or appointed representatives should check that the result card is a true record of players and score before signing."

- 10.3 "The result card should be in the possession of the appointed league results secretary within five days of the match taking place. This should either be by post or the card can be scanned/photographed and then sent by e-mail. Failing to do this may mean the offending team be liable to a fine of £10.00."
- 10.4 "Two trial ends are available before each match if decided upon."
- 10.5 "If a player arrives late, they may join the match at any time provided their name has been included on the result card before the start of the match, but they can only play second in the Club 60 and Weekend Leagues."
- 10.6 "If a player is unable to complete a match through illness or injury, a substitute may be permitted to replace the player concerned, providing they are registered for that team in that league or cup competition."

POSTPONED MATCHES

- 11.1 "If in the opinion of the groundsman and/or the two captains or appointed representatives agree that the green or weather are unfavourable for a match, they must arrange a mutually acceptable alternative date."
- 11.2 "The home team or first named team in cup competitions will be responsible for both notifying the Fixture Secretary of the decision immediately by phone or email and providing them with a new date within seven days of the original fixture being postponed, the new date not to be beyond the second week of September in the case of league matches, or before the next round in the case of cup matches."
- 11.3 "Clubs can apply to the League to postpone a match without penalty if they believe there are 'exceptional circumstances' involved, in which case the League will make a decision based on the facts presented to them. If the League agree to the request, the team seeking the postponement will be responsible for notifying the Fixture Secretary of the new date by phone or email within seven days of the original date of the match. If the League refuse to accept the reason offered, then either rule 11.4 or rule 11.6 will apply. "
- 11.4 "By mutual agreement between two captains any game may be re-arranged to be played before the end of the season without penalty. Notification of the re-arrangement to be emailed to the League rep and cc to the Fixture Secretary by each team captain 7 days before the scheduled fixture. The Management committee reserve the right to issue a date for a match to be played in any dispute."
- 11.5 "Should less than 48 hours' notice of a postponement be given, the offending team will be responsible for any expense incurred by the opposition in notifying players of the postponement."
- 11.6 "Any league game can be played before the scheduled date without penalty so long as both captains agree and the Fixture Secretary is notified. The revised date then becomes the new date and replaces the one in the handbook."
- 11.7 "If a club reaches the quarter-final stage, or beyond, of a knockout competition, both within and outside the jurisdiction of the League, then with the consent of both captains, the League fixture may be rearranged without penalty. The club seeking to postpone the League fixture is responsible for notifying the Fixture Secretary of the fixture change and the re-scheduled date before they play their cup match. The rule only applies to full team competitions, and therefore does not apply to singles, pairs, triples and fours."

ABANDONED MATCHES

- 12.1 "Matches to consist of 18 completed ends in the Club 60 League, Weekend League and the Mick Lewin Trophy. If a match is abandoned before 18 ends are completed, and if a minimum 12 ends have been played by all three rinks, then the score at the termination of the match will be accepted as the result. If play is abandoned before all three rinks have played 12 ends, the match will be declared null and void and replayed at a later date."
- 12.2 "Matches to consist of 21 completed ends in the Midweek League, Albert Rowlett Cup and the Munday Shield. If a match is abandoned before 21 ends are completed, and if a minimum 14 ends have been played by all three rinks, then the score at the termination of the match will be accepted as the result. If play is abandoned before all three rinks have played 14 ends, the match will be declared null and void and replayed at a later date."

12.3 "The home team, or first named in cup competitions, will be responsible for notifying the Fixture Secretary immediately of an abandoned match, either by phone or email. The Fixture Secretary to be notified of the rearranged date within seven days of the original fixture. The new date for league matches must not be beyond the second week of September; a rearranged cup fixture must be played before the next round."

TROPHIES AND REPLICAS

13.1 "The winners of each division or cup competition will be presented with a trophy at the end of the season, but this will be retained by the League for insurance purposes and put on display in the League's trophy cabinet at the Peterborough & District club."

13.2 "The management committee, shall on the express preference of the successful clubs, be empowered to purchase for the winners and runners-up either individual replica trophies up to a maximum of 12 per team, or alternatively a single engraved plaque or shield, bearing the names of the players, of a suitable value."

13.3 "A club failing to attend the annual presentation dinner to collect prizes shall forfeit those prizes and pay the cost of said trophies."

TIPS FOR CAPTAINS

1. "If you have any queries relating to any matter concerning a fixture please don't hesitate to contact the Fixture secretary or any other League officer. We are here to help."

2. "We process over 1,000 result cards during the season and are not unknown to make mistakes. Please check the website for your results and if you have any queries contact the Fixture secretary - email is best pdbowls2019@btinternet.com"
